

Marathon Special Products: 169x, 259x & 269x Obsolescence Notification

November 2, 2016

Due to diminished demand and specialized processes involved with the manufacturing of this product line, Marathon Special Products (MSP) will effectively discontinue and obsolete the 169x, 259x & 269x Series terminal blocks as of December 31st 2016.

All final orders are encouraged to be placed by December 5th to assure we can support your demands while finding alternatives.

Below are the primary affected part numbers for each series. Each part number may have additional hardware options that follow the primary part numbers, which will also be obsoleted.
