PRODUCT OBSOLESCENCE ANNOUNCEMENT

Due to reduced demand, Marathon Special Products is eliminating the 140x801 series splicer power distribution blocks from our product offering effective November 1, 2018. Any orders on this part must be received by November 1, 2018.

1403801 (3-pole)

Marathon Special Products will offer the 143x124 series splicer power distribution blocks as a functional cross. Please use the link for the 143x124: <http://www.marathonsp.com/search.php?search=143x124>

Feel free to email or reach out to me with any questions or concerns you may have in regards to this change.

Thank You,
